

Knowledge Organiser – Ghost Stories (Year 9)

English Language Terms
1	Adjective	A type of word class. Adjectives refer to words that describe a noun.
2	Adverb	Another word class. Adverbs describe the verbs and usually end in "-ly". For example: she walked quickly.
3	Noun	A type of word class. Nouns refer to words that are names, e.g. of a person, place or thing.
4	Verb	Another word class. Verbs are "doing" words. For example: run .
5	Pronoun	Another word class. Pronouns are words that stand in the place of nouns, to avoid repetition. For example: he, she, they .
6	Types of Sentences	Imperative sentences Sentences that command ( Go home/Stop at the traffic lights/Answer the questions in order )
7		Interrogative sentences Sentences that ask a question (whether it's rhetorical or requiring an answer)
8		Declarative sentences Sentences that state something (a statement giving information, description or opinion)
9	Hyperbole	Exaggerating something so much that it cannot be taken literally
10	Litotes	Could also be described as under-exaggeration – where you attempt to describe something positive by using double negatives E.g. no small victory, not a bad idea, not unhappy – it was not the worst play I'd ever seen
11	Semantic field	When a group of words are together with similar connotations, they're part of one "theme" or semantic field. (e.g. 'bullet' 'wound' 'battle' and 'soldier' create a semantic field of war )
12	Euphemism	A word or phrase used to soften a harsh reality. For example, "passed away" is a euphemism of "death."
13	Genre	A category or type of writing – e.g. horror stories or love stories
14	Objective information	Factual ideas (which can be proven to be true)
15	Subjective information	Personal opinions and feelings (that can be debated)
16	Atmosphere	The pervading feeling created by a description of the setting, or the action e.g foreboding, happiness
