

Financial Transparency

Government requirements

For financial transparency, the DfE now requires schools to publish on their website, various additional pieces of financial information as follows:

Schools' benchmarking

To see a detailed picture of Ferndown Upper School's income and expenditure, please click here.

Salaries in excess of £100k

Schools are required to publish the number of salaries in excess of £100k. The table below is accurate as of 2026.

Criteria	Number
Number of salaries in excess of £100k	0
Number of salaries in excess of £110k	0
Number of salaries in excess of £120k	1

List of RPTs (Related Party Transactions)

Schools are required to publish annually any related party transactions. These are transactions relating to the purchase of a contract or service where there may be a connection with the contractor and a member of staff or governor. The table below is accurate as of 2026.

RPT	Value
None	£0